

This topographic map depicts the Skamania National Forest area, spanning the border between Washington and Oregon. The map features a detailed grayscale relief of the terrain, with a red dashed line indicating the state boundary. Major water bodies are shown in blue, including the Willamette River, Sandy River, Bull Run, and several forks of the Lewis and Clark River. The map includes a scale bar (0 to 10 miles) and a north arrow.